Mark Morrow Assistant Golf Professional Peninsula Golf Club

Hello PGC,

We've had a lot of rounds played and good activity here on the course! The weather cooperated for us this month for the most part.

Here is a review from last month:

- + Thanks to everyone who played in the inaugural 3-6-0 golf tournament; it was a unique format and it seemed like everyone had fun. Look for another event like that this summer.
- + Winter Merchant League continues – currently team Refrigeration 2000, Joshua's, and the Pro Shop Crew are in 1st-3rd respectively. We'll see you out here for more league play! And keep your eye on the upcoming weeks - pick the best days to play!
- + Shout out to Brian Gundersen for his first hole-in-one on #14 on 12/28/2022!

Upcoming events:

- + We are still taking sign-ups for the New Year's Shootout, which will be Saturday, 1/28/23 with a 10am shotgun. Please sign up by 12pm on 1/27/23. This is a 2-person scramble/shamble. The signup form is on our website under events and you can also stop into the pro shop for details.
- + We are also working on a new tournament, the PGC 18 par 3s tournament, which we are aiming to have on 2/25/23. More details to come on that.

I hope everyone received the 2023 PGC Golf Schedule of Events via email. If you did not receive it, stop into the pro shop and provide us your email or ask for a copy. That document is the best information we can provide up to this point. These newsletters and also our emails that we provide throughout the year will have all the updated information, so please continue utilizing those pieces of correspondence as each month comes along. Hopefully the event calendar will help you plan your year of golf with us!

Did you know we did over 19,000 rounds of golf here at PGC in 2022? We had a heck of a year in 2022 and we're off to a good start here in 2023. Keep being patient with us here in the shop and know that we will be here to do our best for you.

We appreciate your loyalty to the club and are thankful for your business!

Sincerely,

Mark Morrow & the Pro Shop Team

Mum's the word

Golf's a hard enough game without your own mother calling a penalty on you – and yet that's precisely what happened to Viktor Hovland during The PLAYERS Championship in March 2021. The Norwegian was given a two-stroke penalty in the opening round at TPC Sawgrass after he accidentally putted his ball from the wrong place on the 15th hole. Hovland had moved his marker to clear the line for playing partner Justin Thomas. When he returned it, he moved it in the wrong direction... something his eagle-eyed mother Galina noticed whilst watching on TV. She phoned Viktor after his round and brought it to his attention. The then 23-year-old then raised the issue with tournament rules officials, reviewed the footage and was assessed a two-shot penalty for his error. Why wasn't he DQ'd for signing an incorrect scorecard you ask? You'll find your answer under Rule 3.3b3, which allowed him to be retroactively penalised for unknowingly violating a rule. Lucky boy..
